Forage Expo is the must-attend event for anyone serious about forage production.

This year's demonstrations will feature top-tier equipment from the industry's leading manufacturers, giving attendees an exclusive look at the latest innovations hitting the market. It's hay-making in motion.

More than just a showcase, Forage Expo offers head-to-head field trials where you'll see the newest forage tools in action. Don't forget to attend the trade show where you'll meet all sort of organizations, including seed companies, funding organizations, and other agricultural groups.

There is no cost to attend and no registration required. Lunch will be available to purchase on site (bring cash).
